

Top Issues 1990-2003 ~ Green County UW-Extension

1990

1. Drug/Alcohol education & control
2. Environment-air, land, water
3. Senior Citizens-today's society, housing, use of their expertise
4. Shortage of child care providers, unsupervised children
5. Health care costs
6. Eroding family unit
7. Burying ourselves in waste, recycling
8. Improving interest, membership & promotion of county youth organizations
9. Child abuse
10. Continuing education for all family members

1995

1. Comprehensive County-wide Planning & Development
2. Available & Affordable Health Care
3. Land Use Policies
4. Family Time, Making Family Relationships a Priority, Reinvesting in Family
5. Property Tax Relief
6. Preservation of Family Farms
7. Youth Leadership Development
8. Community Leadership Development
9. Attracting & Keeping Young Farmers in Production Agriculture
10. Availability of Good-Paying Jobs

Top Issues 1990-2003 ~ Green County UW-Extension

1999

1. County Land Use Planning
2. Preserving Farms & Maintaining Our Agriculture Industry
3. Providing Safe, Quality Education K-12
4. Preserving Natural Resources
5. Building Assets to Promote Healthy Young Development
6. Creating Greater Recreational Opportunities for Youth to Keep them Off the Street
7. Developing Resources to Help Maintain Strong Families
8. Lack of New Leadership in Local Government & Civic Organizations
9. Alcohol & Drug Use
10. Affordable Health Care

2003

1. Improving the Economic Base Through Job Creation, While Maintaining a Balance Between Agricultural & Non-Agricultural Business
2. preserving Our Natural & Agricultural Resources Through Land Use Management
3. Maintaining & Supporting K-12 Education in a Declining Fiscal Environment
4. Maintaining Quality Government Services in a Declining Fiscal Environment
5. Building, Educating & Maintaining a Skilled Workforce
6. Maintaining Resources to Promote Healthy Youth, Families & Seniors
7. Developing a Sense of Community with a Diverse Population
8. Building the Community's Capacity to Meet the Needs of its Citizens.