

Green County Leaders can help you take the next step in your leadership journey.
Just listen to what our 2013-2014 graduates have to say!

The Green County Leaders program has re-introduced me to all of the resources Green County has to offer. It was a very worthwhile program.

Deb Delforge
Fowler Memorial Free Dental Clinic

The program has helped me find my voice and reach outside of my comfort zone. I'm more confident in myself and my abilities as a person and a leader.

Jessi Beck
Sugar River Bank-Brodhead

I loved my time in Green County Leaders. It was literally the workday that I most looked forward to each month. Spending time learning about leadership traits and styles really helped me as I pursued advancement into a leadership position and the next step in my career path.

Brian Slattery
Monroe Clinic

The program opened my eyes to a large list of problems in our community, but provided us with the knowledge and foundation to help fix them with our newly learned leadership qualities. Each session has you wanting more.

I would take the program again!

Brian Schaible
Wisconsin Bank and Trust

This program helped me to discover who I am and realize my full potential. I will enjoy the lasting relationships I've made for years to come.

Kristen Jensen
Colony Brands, Inc.

Great experience – living in Green County most of my life, there was so much I never knew about the county before going through Green County Leaders.

Josh Dye
PDC Electrical Contractors

The Green County Leaders program is by far one of the best leadership-based programs I have been through. It was enlightening to learn more about my own leadership strengths as well as learning about community organizations, needs, and how I can support both.

Belinda Pratt
Orchid International-Monroe

Green County Leaders helped me discover my strengths and develop my leadership philosophy. It also provided me with numerous personal connections that help me feel connected to the community.

Dan Schenkat
Monroe Clinic

I learned about my personal leadership style and how I can help to benefit Green County in the future through participation in local organizations and government. Without Green County Leaders I may not have considered exploring these opportunities.

Amanda Montgomery
